The Maldon Society

The Society, formed in 1957, aims to promote and preserve the historical heritage of this town and its surrounding area by:

- encouraging civic pride in the area and promoting co-operation with other organisations
- encouraging high standards of planning and architecture by liaising with Councils on planning applications and conservation awards
- arranging monthly talks of local interest, open to both members and the public, in the Cygnet Room behind the Swan Hotel, High Street, Maldon.
- managing an informative website (maldonsoc.org) and producing a twice-yearly newsletter
- managing an archive of photographs and drawings illustrating the history of the town, housed in the Maeldune Heritage Centre on Market Hill
- developing an oral history archive by recording memories from local residents. Making selections available to hear in the Maeldune Centre and ensuring a complete record is held on a dedicated website (maldonoralthistory.org) and at the Essex Record Office
- arranging the creation and maintenance of blue plaques and publicising them with a walking tour leaflet and online.
- contributing to Heritage weekends and other relevant town events
